ANNOUNCEMENTS

God bless all of our Veterans and their service to our country to keep our freedom!

On November 17 there will be a meeting for those interested in Christian Education.

On November 17 we will be remembering our friend and brother in Christ, John Juhasz.

Today is the last day for food collection for the Plant City Food Bank.

We are looking for a volunteer who would like to organize something for the youth on St. Nicholas Day, Dec. 6. Please see Pani if you are interested.

Pani does the bulletin, if you need something put in the bulletin you must let her know through text 813-451-9829 or email panicarrie@yahoo.com by Friday evening.

We will have our traditional parish potluck Thanksgiving on November 24, which we have dispensation to celebrate together as a parish. Please see sign up in the hall.

On the ministry table you can pick up a gratitude booklet for the month of November.

Natalie and Mike have been working in the hall setting up a ministry wall. Please review this area often for important information and updates.

Pani has begun book study before the midweek service. We are going to read through Person to Person by Harry Boosalis. If you are interested, let her know. She will make copies of the pages to read, or you can order the book through Amazon or St. Tikhon's Monastery Book store. If you have not been able to attend the first few, you can still participate!

Please, still come to the 7:00 service if you cannot make the book study!

Please let the children and their families get their food first for fellowship so Christian Education for them can begin faster.

If you have someone who needs to be added to the prayer list, please see Cynthia Brown. You can contact Cynthia during the week at cynthiaann36@live.com or on Facebook Messenger. We will update the list monthly.

Fasting Guidelines for the Nativity Preparatory Period (Nov. 15-Dec 24)

As one of the four periods of repentance of the Church, we do the following:

- 1). Increase prayer (and increase attendance at services when possible).
- 2). Increase spiritual reading (Scripture, Saints lives, Church Fathers, etc.).
- 3). Do an examination of conscience, and confession as appropriate during the fast
- 4). Choose an option for fasting as follows:

In the monastic typikon tradition, which since the 15th century has been also encouraged for laity when possible, the following is the case:

On Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from November 15-Dec. 19, and all days from Dec. 20-24, eat nothing in the morning hours at all (until noon), with no Meat, Fish, Eggs, Cheese/Dairy, Wine or Olive Oil thereafter. On Saturdays, Sundays, Tuesdays and Thursdays Nov 15-Dec 19: Fish and olive oil are eaten.

Other dispensational options to observe the fast for those not doing the sabbas typikon praxis:

Option 1). One traditional way is for people to fast on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays until December 17. From December 18-24 to abstain from meat and dairy (*Note, during the first millennium, the Nativity fast for laity was only one week long), and to be careful not to overeat on other days. If one can also do so, the canons prescribe, on Wednesdays and Fridays during the whole period, eating no food on Wednesdays and Fridays until noon for those who work (i.e. from the evening before no later than midnight until noon of the following day), but for monastics to eat nothing until 3pm.

Option 2). St. Isaac of Syria wrote this: "If you cannot labor with your body, at least make efforts in your mind. If you cannot fast for two days, fast at least till evening. If you cannot fast till evening, be careful not to overeat. If you are not a peacemaker, at least do not be addicted to strife."

Option 3). Don't drink alcohol and pick one food to abstain from for the whole period that is a food from the fasting list that you are inclined to addiction towards (i.e. a type of meat or dairy which might include, for example, bacon or chocolate).

Note: Hospitality from non-Orthodox is to be accepted when given (unless the food is openly known to have been sacrificed to idols, and then must be refused, or unless it would cause harm to your health such as food allergies, etc.). In other words, if someone invites you to an office Christmas party or a neighbor to a Christmas party it is appropriate to accept the invitation and dispense with the fast, but all things should be eaten with prayer.*
