ANNOUNCEMENTS

Christ is Risen!

The next Outreach ministry for 2018 is assembling bags for the homeless. We are seeking donations of travel items (toothpaste, tissues, socks, toothbrushes, etc). This will begin on 4/29 and end on 6/3/18. Thank you for your kindness.

We are looking for people interested in being a greeter before church. If you are interested, please speak to a council member.

Sign up for fellowship! It can be as simple as bagels or donuts. Please see the board in the hall, or a council member if you have any questions.

It is time for the UOL essay contest for people of all ages! The theme is "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." --Jeremiah 29:11. Please, see the flyer for specific information.

Please remember to follow the preparatory guidelines for communion (see website www.holyorthodox.org for details).

Please allow the youth and their families to be in line first for fellowship so youth education can begin in a timely manner. Thank you.

Christian Ed for the youth has begun. We would like to have the youth and their families be able to get in line first for their food so they can proceed to the church and the lesson in a timely manner. We appreciate your cooperation in this!

According to ancient tradition and a clear church law, kneeling must not be performed on Sundays and on all days during the week after Pascha and until Pentecost. The brilliant solemnity of the events which the Church commemorates throughout the period of Pentecost and on Sundays precludes, in and of itself, any external manifestation of sorrow or lamentation over one's sins: for ever since Jesus Christ, "blotting out the handwriting of the ordinances that was against us, ... nailing it to His Cross; and having spoiled principalities and powers, He made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it" (Col. 2:14-15)—ever since then "there is, therefore, no condemnation to them who are in Jesus Christ" (Rom. 8:1). For this reason, the practice was observed in the Church from the earliest times, beyond a doubt handed down by the apostles, whereby on all these days, in that they are consecrated to the commemoration of the glorious victory of Jesus Christ over sin and death, it was required to perform the public divine service brightly and with solemnity, and in particular without kneeling, which is a sign of repentant grief for one's sins.

Pani printed the phone list for the parish. If there are any mistakes, or anyone is missing, please let her know.

The third Sunday after Pascha is dedicated to the myrrhbearing women who cared for the body of the Saviour at his death and who were the first witnesses of His Resurrection. The three troparia of Holy Friday are sung once again and from the theme of the day:

The noble Joseph, when he had taken down Thy most pure body from the Tree, wrapped it in fine linen and anointed it with spices, and placed it in a new tomb.

When Thou didst descend to death, O Life Immortal, Thou didst slay hell with the splendor of Thy Godhead.

The angel came to the myrrhbearing women at the tomb and said: Myrrh is fitting for the dead, but Christ has shown Himself a stranger to corruption! So proclaim: The Lord is risen, granting the world great mercy.
