ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome Metropolitan Antony and visiting retreat guests and all those who are visiting this week!

Memory Eternal Nicholas Svetahor, father of Ilya who fell asleep in the Lord this week.

Friday, at the retreat, Metropolitan Antony suggested everyone should read Romans 8 during Great Lent along with the footnotes in the Orthodox Study Bible. Let's all commit to reading it this week!

Christian Ed for our youth is beginning March 4. The children will come to fellowship for something to eat and then Miss Lupe will give the children a lesson.

Sign up for a ministry duty for Great Lent/Pascha. The sheets are attached the bulletin. If you have any questions, please see a council member. We all have our parts, let's work together to make this season full of stewardship and repentance.

During the month of February, we will be dedicating the month for donations for church repair. This will be in addition to your weekly offering, which is needed for everyday expenses. Please give what you can so we can improve the church!

Sign up for fellowship! It can be as simple as bagels or donuts. Please see the board in the hall, or a council member if you have any questions. The weeks throughout Great Lent need to be fasting for fellowship.

*To take Communion at an evening Presanctified Liturgy, eat fasting foods (not meat, etc.) sparingly during the day, and cease eating altogether following midday light fasting lunch, ceasing eating altogether at least 4 hours prior to Communion (unless medical needs demand otherwise).

It is time for the UOL essay contest for people of all ages! The theme is "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." --Jeremiah 29:11. Please see the flyer for specific information.

Lent is a time for repentance and self-denial. Take this time to reflect on how you can become closer to God through prayer and stewardship.

Icon of the Feast

The icon of the Sunday of Orthodoxy commemorates the “restoration” of icons in the churches and to their use in Orthodox worship. The focal point of the icon is an icon itself, the Virgin Hodegetria, a popular depiction of the Theotokos as “Directress,” or literally “She who shows the way to God.” The icon is carried by two angels.

To the left of the icon is the Empress Theodora and her son Michael III. To the right of the icon are the Patriarchs Methodios and Tarasios. The icon is surrounded by numerous saints who struggled against the Iconoclastic heresy.

The icon also represents the triumphant procession that was made on Sunday, March 11, 843, from the Church of the Theotokos in Blachernai to Hagia Sophia, where a Liturgy was celebrated to mark the restoration of icons.
