ANNOUNCEMENTS

Today's services are in loving memory of Father Kurt Spengler. May his memory be eternal!

Memory Eternal to Pani Matushka Izabella's father from St. Michaels in Woonsocket, RI! Please keep her in your prayers as she travels to Poland.

At the kiss of peace, we now say Christ is in our midst. He is and ever shall be.

Please don't forget that if you want a memorial service to please, in addition to mentioning it, to also email both Fr. and Pani (she keeps Fr.'s schedule).

We need 39-gallon trash bags for the hall.

The feast of All Saints tomorrow! This is the one and only day that we set out the large reliquary that holds all the relics of the Saints that our parish is graced to have. This is the Eighth and final Sunday of the Pentecostarion.

We are putting together a raffle bag for the UOL Convention in July! Our theme is Florida, please see the green bag on the piano in the hall that says Florida on it. We need your help to add items to it. Here are some Florida based ideas: Ocean Potion (made in Florida), sunglasses, Flip-Flops, Stationary, travel diary, playing cards, Tervis (made in Venice, Florida). If you could help, that would be awesome!

At Saint Joseph Hospital Main, is revitalizing a program titled, "Companions on The Journey," where trained volunteers are available to be with dying patients who had no one. The program has been inactive for a couple of years, but Mission is in the process of recruiting and training a new group of volunteers for this ministry. If interested, it involves an initial training, then a commitment to be scheduled for two 8-hour periods per month (8:00am-4:00 pm or 4:00pm-Midnight) on days of your choice. During those times you agree to be reachable and available, should there be a need. The training is scheduled for Saturday, Aug. 5, from 8:00am-2:00pm in the Medical Arts Building, located at St. Joseph Hospital Tampa. If interested, please contact Jill Mallott at (813) 870-4143 x804143 to register for the training.

Monday begins the period of repentance known as the Apostles' fast. After indulging for the period of the Pentecostarion, we must make sure to rein in our appetites. This is known as a "minor fast". Originally, this was a fast of one week (Monday through Friday), in commemoration of the Apostles' going out to proclaim the Gospel. However, in time, it came to go all the way to the actual feast of the Apostles Peter and Paul. The monastic (full ascetic) form of this fast is every day. However, for laity, common practice is to go Monday-Friday with no meat, eggs, cheese, or alcohol, and in subsequent weeks Monday, Wednesday, and Friday with the same, until the feast of Sts. Peter and Paul.
